

Butch Davis

Mr. Davis has served as a police officer for a number of police agencies in Butler & Hamilton Counties, ultimately retiring as a lieutenant.

He has also served as the Investigation Supervisor of Field Operations for the Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles in the Southwest Ohio region and was a LEADS training officer.

After working for the BMV, he worked for the Hamilton County Municipal Court where he created the License Intervention Program. As a result of his expertise with BMV issues, he has done work for the Ohio Judicial College where he dealt with license suspension and LEADS interpretation for full-time and acting judges.

He is currently employed by the Butler County Area Courts as a bailiff and a liaison on traffic matters
